GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

A well-pested and up-to-date trainer who is at present handling a string at the Memphis track, in a letter to a friend in this city, suggests an excellent plan to do away with the "dogs" of the turf and obviate from race programs events for four-year-old maidens. The letter, in part, is as follows:

"Abe Cahn has a very large string of two-year-olds here—seventeen—and all appear to be very speedy, although none have been asked to work over a quarter except a few that will be shipped to New Orleans in a few days. When the Cahn string arrived at Memphis it was much larger, but the weeding-out process left a number of empty stalls. It would be well if other owners would follow the example of Cahn, and weed the dogs out of their stables. The Turf Congress could easily prevent three, four and five-year-old maidens from racing by passing a rule that horses, geldings and mares that have not won a race as two or three-year-olds be barred from the turf. This is a simple rule, but it would prove an effective one and would be hailed with delight by track secretaries whose lives are made a burden each racing season by turfmen bothering them for such condition races as these:

"1. For four-year-olds and up that have not won since January 1, 1899."
"2. For maidens, four-year-olds and up, 15 pounds below the scale, all to be sold for $200."
"Each of the above races will draw as high as seventy entries, and hardly an owner could be found who would give $200 for the whole lot. Such races are an eyecore to the public, and have done much to harm the sport. The Turf Congress, by passing such a rule, would benefit the turf, and this seems to be a much simpler scheme to rid the turf of the dog element than buying up old brood mares as suggested and put into operation by Eugene Leigh."—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

A special from New Orleans to the St. Louis Republic of Saturday contains the following gossip about the Morris two-year-olds. "Two-year-old racing at the current meeting promises to be more than usually interesting, as the baby race horses now quartered here seem to be considerably above the average. Mr. Robert Walden has in his charge five two-year-olds from the string of Messrs. A. H. & D. H. Morris which seem to promise extremely well. The smallest of the lot is Blink, a chestnut colt, by Victory—Shuffle, a fashionably bred brood mare of the famous War Dance family. Blink is of the pony type of thoroughbred and not a large one at that, but he will make as big a race horse as the famous Bramletta, and should he develop the speed and stoutness possessed by that wonderful little race mare nobody will complain of him on account of his size. Plead is a rangy and racy looking bay filly by Mars, dam, the once famous race mare Specialty, by Sensation. This filly stands nearly or quite fifteen and one-half hands high, has a long body, long neck and gracefully turned outlines. She is, in short, a thoroughly handsome filly, and looks quite as much like a race mare as young two-year-olds are apt to look.

"A n unnamed dark brown filly, with a crooked, irregular blaze, which gives her face a decidedly sinister expression, and one white hind foot, is an animal that would attract attention anywhere. She is by Juvenal—Suspense. She is a compact-looking animal of rather cobby make-up, with a high chest and a generally masculine appearance about the head and neck, especially for a thoroughbred filly. She looks like a speedy filly, and her trials have already indicated that her looks do not belie her capabilities. Choice is a strikingly handsome light bay colt by Mars—Discretion. This youngster strongly resembles his sire, but in some respects his conformation is a distinct improvement upon that of the great son of Plevna. He has better forelegs and shoulders, and his quarters are considerably higher and relatively more powerful. Al together he is a grand-looking colt.

"The pick of the lot, however, whether for ancestry or conformation, is a compact but very racy looking bay filly appropriately named Stripes. She was sired by St. Florian, and, as one might guess from her name, her dam was Correction. If, however, one might fail to readily connect 'stripes' with 'correction,' he could not fail to note the most pronounced resemblance between this filly and the flying daughter of Himyar—Mannie Gray. Stripes has a head and neck about as much like St. Florian's as those of a dainty two-year-old filly could resemble the fore end of such a grand looking stallion as St. Florian, but from the withers back Stripes is the counterpart of her dam."

When March 26 arrives, and we assemble to witness the reopening of flat racing on the Carlholme at Lincoln we shall assist in the inauguration of a new era in racing. This will be brought about by the introduction of the starting machine with which the two-year-olds are to be started throughout the land. One great blessing that will be conferred will be punctuality, which has never yet been associated with English racing. In the old days there was no hurry, but today, with our special trains starting to the minute, delays are very serious. Punctuality is to be further insisted upon with the jockeys, who are no longer to be permitted to chat in the paddock long after the time appointed for the start. With races started, by means of the machine, without any material delay, jockeys will have no excuse for being late, and under the changed conditions something like a system can be devised for insuring punctuality. This is simply not possible under the present system of starting. Very great interest will also be shown in the arrival of more American horses and jockeys. Never has the

NOTES OF THE TURF.

To Bannockburn belongs the honor of winning the first of the Turf Congress stakes and at the same time recording a remarkable performance. Considering the weight carried, he ran the best mile ever recorded in the history of the American turf. A mile in 1:39 with weight up is a feat that Barney Schreiber may reasonably take pride in.

All persons concerned are notified that queries to which only initials are given or no name at all is appended will not be answered.

Nathan. Chicago.—A parie bet on Limerick and Topmast does not win. In such wagers the horses named must win.

J. F. Fisk, Chicago.—Yes. A place bet on Brakeman in the race of January 17 wins.

M. Hauser, Chicago.—If you won the straight bet you certainly won the place bet.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

English turf experienced a more severe shock than that administered to it last year by the handful of transatlantic thoroughbreds and jockeys who made a home with us. At this moment people are trembling in their shoes lest the Derby should be subjected to the ineradicable contamination of being won by a gelding. We do not mind the American colt, but a gelding! We learned last year something about American racing and training methods, and something about the American jockey;
this year we are to learn still more, for the news is that a prominent American owner, for one, is bringing over a formidable string of thoroughbreds of all ages. Whether the American animal and his training are adapted to the ideal end of all racing is what we are waiting to see proved. A cup horse is the English ideal, when everything is said and done, and we have yet to learn whether or not the American animal is of this stamp.—The London Field.

NEW ORLEANS TRACK TALK.

The stewards have ordered the entry of Tyrba refused in the future. His crazy actions at the post, when he tore through the barrier several times, were responsible for their action. Assistant starter Arthur McKnight could do nothing with him. In several of his langes Tyrba carried McKnight fully 100 feet.

Demman Thompson is reported as having won some $12,000 over the wins of Knightbanneret and Dr. Parker. He cleaned up $4,800 on Knightbanneret and the balance on the Daly horse. Nickey Ray and Jimmy Owens placed the commission.—New Orleans Picayune.

Julius Slack denies the story that he has been engaged to go to England to pilot the jumper of a well-known stable. He will find plenty to keep him busy in the vicinity of New York when the season opens.

The Messrs. Davis, owners of the horse Frank McConnell, and jockey L. Thompson, recently suspended for the inconsistent running of the horse, have been restored to favor.

A collection is being taken up by the jockeys at the Fair Grounds for Larry O'Brien, the steplechase rider, who is sick at Hot Springs, Ark.

HORSES SOLD.

NEW ORLEANS, LA., January 20.—The following is the result of the auction sale held in the paddock here today:

J. A. Gray, to B. V. Crosby.....$45
The Winner, to L. V. Below..... 20
Pete Kitchen, to G. Laird..... 25
Blazara, to Henry Simon..... 25
Queen Sable, to G. B. Havill..... 50
Little Gavroche, to E. Sullivan..... 35

Sidney Lucas was barred in the betting today at the request of his owners, who claimed they had no line on their colt as he was not a work horse and they started him with a view of fitting him.

ern and eastern scales of weights, tables showing the comparative speed of tracks, a complete list of pugilistic contests of 1899 of any consequence, trotting and pacing records at all distances and a list of the new 2:15 trotters of 1899.
